

Resources Available to People with Disabilities Who are Homeless or Face the Threat of Homelessness

Baltimore County provides an array of resources to respond to and prevent homelessness.

Some of those resources are available to individuals with disabilities.

Today's discussion will explore activities and resources that address homelessness and touch the lives of people with disabilities.

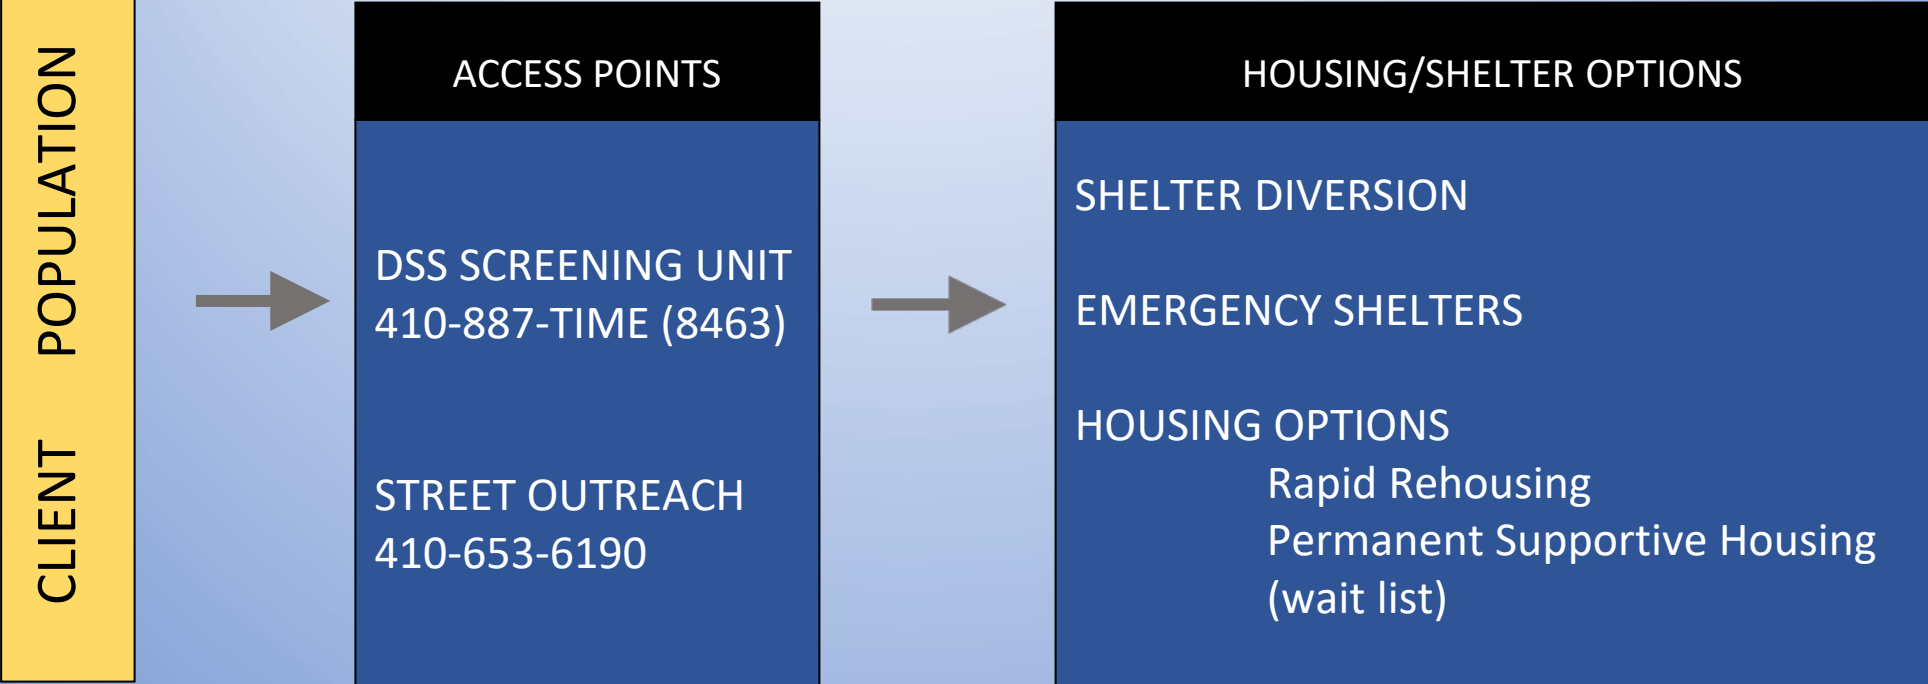

Two key resources are:

- outreach efforts
- Permanent Supportive Housing

Our guest, Nicole “Nikki” Connelly, homeless outreach manager for the nonprofit provider Prologue, Inc., is familiar with both resources.

Before we hear from Nikki, I’d like to present a brief overview of the county’s system for responding to homelessness.

Continuum of Care Program

Continuum of Care Program

The CoC Program funds two types of permanent housing: permanent supportive housing (PSH) for persons with disabilities and rapid re-housing.

Permanent supportive housing is permanent housing with indefinite leasing or rental assistance paired with supportive services to assist homeless persons with a disability or families with an adult or child member with a disability achieve housing stability.
