

Maryland law requires the Police Department to publicly post its policy documents, unless the contents of the document are identified as sensitive by our Chief of Police. The publicly posted policy documents of the Baltimore County Police Department may be found at:

<https://www.baltimorecountymd.gov/departments/police/policies>

On this page of our website you will find the redacted copies of the Department's Field and Administrative manuals, most of the Department's Special Orders, and any policy revision messages that have been sent via e-mail.
