

Organizations and Services for Women Re-Entering Baltimore Communities

BALTIMORE COUNTY
Commission for Women

Greetings, Baltimore County residents,

It is with great pride that we present this comprehensive resource guide to the community at large. This guide provides a listing of important resources you can use and share with others in need.

It is designed to offer maximum guidance for Baltimore County residents to identify assistance with substance abuse recovery, mental health, job and housing benefits, and a variety of other services provided by nonprofit and local and state governmental organizations.

Although this one-stop shop addresses a vast array of needs, this is a living document, and the Baltimore County Commission for Women will make periodic updates to enhance its content and provide the most up-to-date information.

We welcome your suggestions to include other important providers. They may be sent to presidentbccw@gmail.com. Please include the name, location, and a phone number and we will follow up with the service provider.

Thank you to County Executive The Honorable John Olszewski, Jr. for his leadership and commitment to community development and community empowerment. Thank you to BCCW President Ruth Howard for her support and vision that the Baltimore County Commission for Women must play in enhancing services and advocating for women.

Respectfully,
Cherie Peay, Sabrina Jones, Sharon Kehnemui, Cylia Lowe
